EBSB Club, Govt. Degree College Vailoo Larnoo, Anantnag organized a talk on “ Relevance of Gandhian Philosophy of Non- Violence in Contemporary World” under AZADI KA AMRIT MAHAUTSAV on 05-10-2021 to celebrate the International Day of Non-Violence.

Dr. Naseer Hussain, Principal of the college in his opening remarks welcomes the students and other faculty members of the college. Dr. Hussain spoke about Mahatma Gandhi, the leader of the Indian Independence Movement and pioneer of the philosophy and strategy of non violence. He also stressed upon the fact that non-violence can be a powerful active force for peace to prevail worldwide.

Arshid Majid Rather, Assistant Professor of Sociology while speaking on the occasion spoke about Gandhi and the struggle for non-Violence. He states that, Mahatma Gandhi transcends the bounds of race, religion and nation-states, and has emerged as the prophetic voice of the 21st century. The world remembers Ghandhiji not just for his passionate adherence to the practice of non-violence and supreme humanism, but as a bench mark against which citizens can be tested in public life, political ideas, gov. policies and hopes and wishes of our shared planet.

The proceedings of the event were carried out by Raof Ahmad Bhat, Nodal Officer EBSB Club of the College. Mr. Bhat while presenting vote of thanks thanked Principal, Dr. Nasser Hussain for his constant support and encouragement and Arshid Majid Rather for his informative lecture. He also thanked faculty members and students of the college for attending and hearing the lecture patiently
