Report on the Awareness Programme on Three New Criminal Laws at GDC
Vailoo Larnoo, Anantnag

An awareness programme on the three new criminal laws was conducted at Government Degree College Vailoo Larnoo on 8th February 2025, with a distinguished panel of speakers comprising of SSP Anantnag, Gh Hassan (JKPS), SDPO Kokernag, Ajaz Ahmad (JKPS), and the Prosecuting Officer. The session was aimed at educating students and faculty about the recent updates and changes in criminal law, highlighting the significance of these developments in the justice system.

The event was inaugurated by the Principal of College, Prof Farooq Ahmad Pandit who warmly welcomed the guests and expressed the importance of such programs in increasing awareness about legal reforms among the youth. He emphasized how staying informed about legal changes is essential for responsible citizenship.

The first speaker, Superintendent Police Anantnag Gh Hassan (JKPS), presented an overview of the three new criminal laws that have been introduced in recent times.

He focused on their relevance to the current legal landscape and how these laws are designed to address contemporary challenges in the criminal justice system. The SSP explained the practical applications of these laws, detailing how they impact law enforcement and the safety of the public.

Following him, SDPO Kokernag Ajaz Ahmad (JKPS) delved into the role of law enforcement agencies in implementing these new laws. He elaborated on how police officers and the judiciary work together to ensure the effective enforcement of these legal provisions. DySP Ajaz Ahmad also highlighted the procedural changes and the challenges faced by law enforcement professionals in adapting to the new laws, while maintaining fairness and justice.

The Prosecuting Officer, Mam, spoke about the legal and procedural aspects of the new laws, focusing on the prosecution's role in ensuring that these laws are enforced in a way that is just and equitable. She provided an in-depth analysis of the changes in criminal law from the prosecutorial perspective, stressing the importance of fair trials and due process for all individuals involved in criminal cases.

The program was technically assisted by Mohd Tahir Pandit, the Librarian of GDC Vailoo Larnoo, whose support ensured smooth technical execution of the event, enabling clear communication and interaction between the speakers and the audience. His contribution played a vital role in maintaining the seamless flow of the seminar.

In conclusion, the program succeeded in offering an enriching and informative session, deepening the understanding of the new criminal laws and their implications. The question answer session turned to be the peculiar feature of the Programme, where in the experts cleared the doubts of the students about the three new criminal laws and their implementation. It undoubtedly contributed to raising awareness among the youth and fostering a sense of responsible citizenship
